Trivia Night

Here's how it works:

Tables answer questions as a team. You don't have to be smart - just smart enough to surround yourself with smart people. Get your table formed now.

There will be 10 questions in each of 10 different categories.

Cash prizes will be awarded to the top three winning tables.

The cost is $150 per table, which includes Mulligans, the Daily Double and FREE beer, soda, pretzels and M&Ms. Fun at this price should be illegal!

Questions? Contact: Holly Ganther (hganther@hotmail.com)

Since this is a cheap night out and the amenities are limited, players may bring other snacks or beverages as desired for the table: dips, cheeses, spreads, etc. While creativity is encouraged, please avoid smelly foods or concoctions in chafing dishes. Please bring your own glassware, plates, napkins, etc.

Don't be late! Doors open at 6:30 p.m. Give yourself plenty of time to put out your snacks and pour drinks.

The rules will be announced promptly at 7 p.m., immediately followed by the first question.

If you are late, you will forfeit the first round of questions.

Count on having a great time. If you don't have fun, it's your own fault.
